Frills and Furbelows Not an Indication of Youth—No Mode of Dress Can Hide Age of Mind—Junket Served Cold Is Refreshing Dessert in Warm Weather—When Thread Knots—Outside Slip of Scrim For Porch Pillows.

FRIVOLOUS DRESSING.

Frills and furbelows are not an indication of youth. We see dear, sweet, old young women dressed like dolls, ruffled and frilled to represent "what?" Surely not youth, for youth needs no frills, nor does it wear them. The simpler the gown, the straighter the lines, the younger the dress appears. High collars around the throat do not disguise a flabby neck, nor does a frizzled coiffure hide wrinkles. Rather wear the hair plainly dressed and the neck bare and give both a fair treatment.

If as much time and money were expended upon facial treatments and throat beautifying as are spent upon dress, millinery and hairdressing the women would look far younger and be younger also. There is always a suggestion of the ridiculous about a woman past youth who dresses to appear like a girl of 16. No mode of dress can hide age of mind. You have but to look straight into a woman's face to see how young she is. If her spirit is young and ambitious and full of kindness for others she cannot look old; she needs no ruffles and puffs to deceive.

I do not believe in dressing frivolously, nor do I believe in dressing too plainly. I do believe in the fitness of things. As long as the eyes are bright, colors may be worn, if becoming. The fashions should be followed in moderation; no eccentric slit or tight skirt will add to any one's appearance. The neck of a gown should not be worn too low, but a pretty throat should not be covered. A smartly fitting, comfortable shoe should never be replaced by a white topped, patent leather, high heeled low shoe. The foot dressing has much to do with feeling young. And if you do not feel young you may be sure you do not look young.

No woman should wear caps to hide her hair before she is 50. At the same time I would caution the woman past 50 to disclaim all attempts to dress like "sweet 16." There is nothing to be gained at 16 that cannot be improved upon at 30. Therefore let all dress to look like 30 and the medium will be reached.

MILK DESSERTS.

Junket served very cold is a refreshing dessert in hot weather, as are the numerous milk sherberts, frozen custards, and similar desserts in which milk is used. Baked milk, made by cooking sweetened and flavored milk for a long time in a slow oven, is also good. The Mother's Magazine. Many different kinds of puddings are made by baking milk with cereals and molasses or sugar. The cereal may be rice, corn meal, or buttered white or whole-wheat bread. In this class of food belongs, so far as nourishment is concerned, the scalloped potatoes made by cooking sliced raw potatoes for a long time in a large amount of milk.

WHEN THREAD KNOTS.

When doing embroidery or plain sewing, if the thread begins to fray or knot, slip the needle next to the work, take hold of the end of the thread and twist it. Treated thus, the thread seldom breaks.

FOR PORCH PILLOWS.

Try making an outside slip of wide mesh scrim—or a loose weave curtain, material in ecru color. This can be removed easily and laundered, saving nice cushion tops from many a trip to the tub—while giving a fresh cool "summer" look to some of the old cushion covers, which would otherwise be thrown away.

TRUST LEGISLATION APPEARS CERTAIN

Washington, June 28.—Convinced that there is no other path to development but the one which begins with trust legislation, the senate will settle down this week to the steady grind of work on the federal trade commission bill.

The senate is far from resigned to the thought of six weeks or more of discussion of trust legislation in mid-summer, but it is not probable that the spirit of open revolt will show itself on the floor and unless senate leaders are at fault in the predictions, the three house bills or legislation designed to cover the same ground, will be put through by the familiar process of weeks of debate, fruitless effort to amend and then passage.

There is no doubt whatever that if the president would relent in his insistence upon the anti-trust program congress could and would get away from Washington in two weeks or less. The house is in such shape that it could be ready to get away in a few days and the senate is not far behind, as far as appropriation measures are concerned. Many of these bills are still in conference, but if there was any real chance of adjustment it would not take more than a few days to have them finally disposed of.

CONFERENCE REPORTS ARE TO BE RUSHED

Washington, June 28.—The house of representatives will hold itself in readiness this week to rush through conference reports on the appropriation bills that the government departments may have all the necessary funds for the working expenses. Delay in reaching an agreement with the senate on new items inserted

METHODS OF MILITANTS NO ARGUMENT AGAINST VOTE HERE, SAYS MRS. CATT

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, international president of the Woman's Suffrage Association, deprecates the argument of anti-suffragists that the methods of the English militants constitute a sufficient excuse for refusing American women the ballot. "To oppose because of this small group of warring Englishwomen the vote for women in America, where there has been neither rebellion nor cause for it, where exists the most vigorous campaign of education to obtain political equality in accordance with the institutions of our country, would be as absurd as for a Czar of Russia to refuse his people a Duma," says Mrs. Catt.

In these bills and changes made in the firm are W. D. Fales, president; J. W. Dyer, vice president, and R. W. Houston, secretary and treasurer. They will do a wholesale and retail meat business.

Griffith of 531 South Main street met with a painful accident yesterday when he was thrown from a horse and suffered a fracture of one leg. His ankle was also crushed by being stepped on by the horse. The bones were set and the boy is doing nicely.

FLUFFY SUMMER GOWN.

For a dainty figure this design would be charming. The little jacket is of changeable yellow and peacock blue silk in the brightest possible shades and is finished with tabs and pleated folds of the same. The dress has an empire waist of lace with a skirt of alternating flounces of sheer lawn and lace in cream white. Frills of lace on the neck and sleeves and a hat in black and white, with bright flowers complete the costume.

Summer-Spoiled Skin Removed by Absorption

As undue summer exposure usually leaves an undesirable surface of tan, dust or grease, often freckles, too, it is more sensible to absorb such surface than to hide it with cosmetics. There's nothing better for this than ordinary mercurized wax, which actually absorbs an unwholesome complexion. The thin layer of surface skin is itself absorbed, gently, gradually, so there's no inconvenience, no detention indoors. Spread the wax lightly over the entire face at bedtime and take it off in the morning with warm water. If you will get one ounce of mercurized wax at the drugstore, use for a week or so, you may expect marked improvement. When the underlying skin is wholly in view, your complexion will be a marvel of spotless purity and beautiful whiteness. Don't let those summer wrinkles worry you, worry breeds more wrinkles. Banish them by bathing the face in a solution of powdered salicylic, 1 oz., dissolved in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Used daily for a while this will be found wonderfully effective.

In the extreme northwestern portion of the country from the Dakotas westward, said the weather bulletin, "the weather will probably be unsettled and showery until after the middle of the week with somewhat higher temperatures after Monday. Over the middle and southern districts west of the Rocky Mountains the central plains states, the southwest, the gulf states and the Ohio valley generally fair weather will prevail during the week with continued high temperatures to the southward and with rising temperatures over the central districts by the middle of the week."
